

Laurie Truluck

Brass teacher

Information for Schools

First Access Tuition	Brass & Recorder
Curriculum Music	No
Ensemble Work	School ensembles

About Laurie

Laurie has over 10 years' experience of teaching brass instruments, from beginner to beyond Grade 8. He has taught a number of different whole class brass and recorder projects, as well as beginner piano.

Laurie grew up mainly in Dorset and Wiltshire, before going to the University of Birmingham to study Geography & Hispanic Studies. He moved to London to pursue music, obtaining a Masters degree in French horn performance from Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music & Dance. During his 14 years in London he taught for Bromley Youth Music Trust, Merton Music Foundation and Hackney Youth Orchestras' Trust, at primary and secondary level.

Horn playing has taken him to many interesting parts of the world, including India, China, Russia, Abu Dhabi and Saudi Arabia. Closer to home, he has performed with orchestras including BBC Concert Orchestra, London Mozart Players, Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra, London Concert Orchestra, National Symphony Orchestra and Brighton Philharmonic. A versatile musician, Laurie has played at the Royal Albert Hall with major rock bands Alter Bridge and Bring me the Horizon, been on tour with 80s pop group ABC, and played Bollywood music to an 80,000 crowd at Global Citizen in Mumbai.